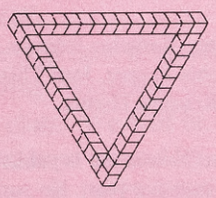
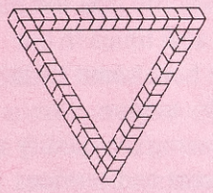
GAY PRIDE DANCE CELEBRATION



Saturday, June 20, 1992
8-12 p.m.
Unitarian Universalist Society Hall
2425 Sierra Blvd.
(Between Howe & Fulton, north of Fair Oaks Blvd.)



A special invitation to the Gay Pride Dance Celebration. We are returning to a favorite meeting place. The Unitarian Hall affords us off-street parking, a wonderful wooden dance floor and the privacy to relax in the company of old and new friends alike.

"Jammin' Jo," DJ extraordinaire, will add her special energy to the music for the evening. She invites you to call her voice mail, 955-3328, with your special requests for tunes for the SACWN Dance. Please call by two weeks in advance if you can, says Jo, so she can be sure to gather up the music you want.

Join us at the Dance and experience the energy that "pride provides." Light appetizers and beverages will be available.

Tickets:
$13 pre-registered members
$15 non-members and at-the-door members
$12 limited income members in advance

An event for women 21 years and older

A Message From the Steering Committee

Many thanks to Annie Johnson who is retiring as Member Services Coordinator this month to give herself some time to refresh and replenish. Annie put on the Mother's Day Picnic as her last event, and has given many hours and boundless energy to all of us in SACWN. Annie, you will be missed! Please thank her yourself next time you see her - volunteers like her are the lifeblood of SACWN.

We all experience burn-out sometimes when life gets too busy. And there are also times in our lives when we have some extra time and energy to give. We cannot keep having the quality and quantity of events and services you've come to expect from SACWN without more help. Please, if there's a way within the time limits you have that you can help, call and volunteer. Read the "Volunteer Job Board" each month and see if there's one specific job you can do for your organization. There are bigger jobs - like someone to fill Annie's shoes - and there are smaller ones. Please come forward!

If you attended the Second Annual Breast Cancer Prevention Rally at the Capitol on Mother's Day, you know SACWN acted as a sponsor of this important public education and lobbying event for womens' health. Unfortunately, we didn't get the news release till way too late to advertise the event in this newsletter. If you want to work with this group, call Ellen Hobbs at 334-2273 to volunteer.

We're also participating in two other community projects, one an ad hoc committee of gay and lesbian organizations working on a Domestic Partnership Ordinance for the City of Sacramento and the other on a Coalition of Sacramento Women's Organizations (COSWO) that seeks to assure that women's voices are hear on boards and commissions, child care issues, and candidates' platforms. Call me if you're interested in participating.

One final sad note, but we've got to be frank about it. There are some folks who've been taking advantage of our "honor system" at SACWN events! We started to detect it at the JoAnn Loulan event, but didn't want to believe it. At the over Our Heads Event, we found it was true for sure.

There are people who've been sneaking into events - unmonitored back doors, side doors - with other people's help - without paying. It has been hurting us all financially. We have to pay big prices to get quality speakers and facilities. We pay no matter how many pay at the door. Our efforts to keep prices of events down are directly related to paid attendance. Our ability to keep our Administrative Assistant, Linda Killick, who provides countless services to you, is directly affected by such acts.

If you see this happening, please tell someone from the Steering Committee or someone handling registration immediately, so that we can deal with it. Two people had to be asked to leave the Over Our Heads Concert, and who knows how many more slipped in with them undetected. We can't keep doing what we're doing without your help.

Special Interest Groups -- June

I've had a suggestion for a STOP SMOKING group — anybody interested? Call me if so, or if you have a suggestion for other new S.I.G. groups. I want to remind people that Special Interest Groups are a benefit for SACWN members, so if you know someone in a S.I.G. that is not yet a member, give them a subscription renewal form from your newsletter so they can join. Non-members can attend one S.I.G. event before joining SACWN.

Ellie Zacks 967-3513

BRIDGE
For the best deal in town, join the fun-loving women of the SACWN bridge club. We will be playing Sunday, June 14 and 28 at 4 p.m. Call Suzy at 1-678-3581 for info.

GOLF
We have a new facilitator for this group. Call Judy at 339-1785.

SOCIAL CONNECTION
This group will be having its second annual raft trip in August. If you're interested in planning any other events for the summer, call Ellie, 987-3513. Call Joan, 795-1336 for info about the raft trip.

LATE-BLOOMERS
We'll meet the first and third Thursdays in June. Join us for coffee, good conversation and let's get acquainted. Contact Susan at 641-1887.

TOP TEN
Top Ten is for the 10% of SACWN membership age 50 and up and their friends. We have a thriving membership — 45 women, many of whom have not reached their golden years. We meet once a month on the second Sunday and get together for dinner later in the month as well. For info, call Gayle, 456-4121 or Ariel, 483-9794.

DAVIS OVER 30
Our June event is a trip to the Lambda Freedom Fair. Call Jody or Jean 758-6746 if you would like to carpool.

OUTINGS
Join us for an organizational meeting on June 18th at 7 p.m. The purpose is to plan activities for the rest of the summer. For details, call Nancy at 452-6007 or 454-5847.

SECOND STAGE RECOVERY
We're now one year old! We have evolved into a close group of sharing friends celebrating our growth and recovery. If you have at least one year in a 12 step recovery program and are looking for a safe, supportive, loving environment to continue your discovery through recovery, call Ann, 927-6038.

RAINBOW CAMPERS
Events for the summer are:
June 12 and 13 — Coloma
July 10 and 11 — Samuel P. Taylor Campground
August (date unknown) — Coloma
Sep 5,6, and 7 — The Women's Festival at Yosemite
Sep 19 and 20 — Bullards Bar
For info call Jayne, 921-6642.

WOMEN SURVIVING BREAKUP
Meet on June 7 and 21. Call Gabrielle, 442-0891 for details.

THE RELATIONSHIP FORUM
The Relationship Forum has been meeting for three months on alternate Sundays, and in June, we will meet on the 14th and 28th. We are learning together about women loving women, and may use tapes, videos and readings to bring in new ideas. Contact Sandy, 933-0670.

WOMEN'S WORDS (formerly PLAY-READING)
We have expanded this group to include not only play-reading but also short story reading and poetry reading. So bring your favorite lesbian writings to our meeting on the second Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. Call Lenora, 444-0102.

LESBIAN PARENTS
This group needs a new facilitator. Call Ellie, 967-3513.

BASKETBALL
We are playing Saturday mornings from 9 - 11 for fun and exercise. All skill levels are welcome; no previous experience necessary. Call Maggie, 456-1420 or Susan, 457-2291.

NEWCOMERS
This group welcomes anyone new to SACWN or Sacramento, plus those who prefer a smaller group for getting acquainted with other SACWN members. We get together once a month for dinner. Join us on June 14th! Call Nancy, 454-5847.

THIRTYSOMETHING
Join us for summertime fun. In June, July and August we will have barbecues, music, dancing, trips and good company. Sheri, 361-8537.

SOFTBALL
Linda 446-9416

HIKING
The Hiking Group has its boots on and we're ready to go. Our first trek was to Point Reyes. The June trip will be a hike in the Immigrant Pass area of the Sierras on June 13. Call Karen, 753-6670 for details.

Over Our Heads

by Kathelen Johnson

"One of the hottest women's comedy groups in the country," is how SACWN advertised this event, "Over Our Heads," held at the Holiday Inn on April 18th. Truly I've never seen better. Karen Ripley, Teresa Chandler, Annie Larson, and Marion Damon acted with zest, zany humor, and bold imaginative improvisation, and they performed awe-inspiring musical melodies with harmonizations of great beauty. A top quality show.

You had to have been there. The delight I felt at their hysterically funny banter, suggestive and risque quips, literary and historical allusions, and never ending surprise twists and complications-- they put a smile on my face that lasted the whole evening. I can't remember when I've had such a great time. And yet, when I try to describe this show, I find the energetic wit and inventiveness can't be captured or conveyed in two dimensional words on paper.

After an opening musical number by the quartet, Karen Ripley greeted the crowd and explained that the group works off audience suggestions. "You're in control," she proclaimed. I felt uncomfortable a few times when the audience veered out of control, but the professionals were unfazed miracle workers as they kept their routines flowing smoothly along.

The first improvisation was called, "Freeze Tag." Other acts during the first half of the evening were "Supply a Word," "Ima Buttagin," "I Survived a Femme," "Film Genres," "Telling a Story in Chapters," and What do you say when...?"

After intermission we were brought back to attention by a church lady wandering through the audience, a barely recognizable Marion, dressed up in a gown, with beads, hat, wig, and pointed glamour glasses. She introduced each of her fellow church ladies, similarly attired in fashions by Goodwill. Their personas were distinct and familiar to us all. I especially liked the tall, demure lady, Teresa, alias Bertha, wearing a housewifely bib apron and clutching her purse. She stood on the stage before us, looking nervous and uncomfortable, trying to rub the old line of stuck lipstick off her front teeth, fussing around in her purse to find a tissue, wiping at her teeth, very shy and ill at ease.

Before going to the piano bench as accompanyist, Marion Churchlady asked the audience for the theme for their hymn, inquiring, " What inspires you?" From many suggestions called out, she accepted "Star Trek". Each member of the gospel trio, Bertha, Evelyn, and Sue, sang a solo verse, impromptu and brilliant, and together they swayed with their choruses, "I believe, oh-oh, I believe the good Lord gave us Star Trek."

Shy nervous, jittery Bertha blew us away as she sang the final verse, dropping all inhibitions and belting out a magnificent, earth shaking, soul felt revelation, rivaling African American Aretha Franklin in beauty, conviction and power. I could see why "Over Our Heads" is always a sellout. In Modesto all tickets were sold long before BACW February event took place. In April they played to a full house for SACWN. If you ever hear they're playing in your area soon, buy your tickets in advance. And you'll probably see me there. I loved their show. The excitement, surprises, and genius never waned.
